Father Daughter Ball

WHEN: Saturday, February 6, 2010

WHERE: Breaking Bread Banquet Hall, 6451 S. Business Drive, Sheboygan

PARKING: Available at Breaking Bread.

SEATING: Doors open promptly at 5:00 pm on Saturday night. Open seating for ten at each table. Inner tables are removed after dinner for dancing (these tables will be marked).

MENU: Turkey, mashed potatoes & gravy, stuffing, carrots, soup, dinner rolls, dessert, milk and coffee (soda is available for purchase). Program and dinner will begin at 6:00 pm.

MUSIC: Music is tasteful and fun. You will recognize many familiar and old favorites! Be ready for the Limbo and the Chicken Dance...

ATTIRE: This is a special occasion and an opportunity to wear your "Sunday Best". Daughters usually wear dresses ... some come in gowns. Fathers often wear dress shirts and ties; suits are common attire (even a few tuxedos). Limited corsages & tiaras are available at the reception table for a small charge (smaller denominations appreciated).

PHOTOS: "Irish Studios" will be offering portrait packages for a minimal charge. Pictures will begin when the doors open and continue throughout early evening.

SAFETY: For your daughter's safety, please remain on the ballroom floor. Please supervise her, and let her know that running is not allowed. This is a great event, and a wonderful opportunity to teach your daughter how to behave like a lady. There are attendants available to assist your daughter as needed to the washroom. Let us know how we can help you!
